

Studia Ecologiae et Bioethicae
year: 2011, vol.:9 number: 1, pages: 29-48

JÓZEF KOŻUCHOWSKI

Wyższe Seminarium Duchowne w Elblągu; ul. Bożego Ciała 10, 82-300 Elbląg, Poland
martyna_gumula@vp.pl

ETHICAL OBLIGATION OF MAN TOWARDS ANIMALS.

ROBERT SPAEMANN CONCEPT

(Etyczne zobowiązania człowieka wobec świata zwierząt. Wizja Roberta Spaemanna)

Keywords: ANIMAL ETHICS, SPAEMANN, PERSONALISM

Abstract: Article presents concept of moral obligations that man has towards animals proposed by Robert Spaemann. Spaemann give reasons for perceiving animal as an object of law. His analyses presents possibilities of solving basic moral questions like for example: experiments on animals, animal husbandry, animal slaughter, hunting, interfering into animal's nature and our responsibility for them. Spaemann presents very original argumentation for taking care and responsibility for animals, deriving it from human dignity.